

Sir

Philadelphia June 13th
1780

Mr Aaron Day waits, on you, to request, a Number of Waggoners for the purpose of forwarding Military Stores to Camp. — As it is of importance that they should arrive with all convenient speed, I must, beg of you furnish, as many as will take on the Stores he has in charge — perhaps ten or twelve may answer

The Stores are on board a Schooner and Mr Day is forwarded, by Land to give you the most timely notice to enable you, to comply with our wish — I am
